INSTRUCTIONS FOR IMMIGRANT VISA APPLICANTS

Dear Applicant,

The U.S. Consulate General, Lagos is ready to proceed with your immigrant visa application. Please come to the Consulate for your immigrant visa interview at the date specified in the correspondence you have received. If you are unable to attend the scheduled appointment, or wish to postpone or re-schedule your interview date, please email LagosIV@state.gov with your name, case number, and contact address. Please review the following information carefully as you prepare for your interview.

Effective May 19, 2014, both Immigrant Visa beneficiaries and Diversity Visa applicants must complete the online DS-260/261 in lieu of the DS-230/3032 before coming to the visa interview. For more information, please see <https://ceac.state.gov/ceac/>.

The items listed below are required for the visa interview. If you do not bring the following items, you will not be allowed to enter the Consulate on the day of your interview:

Confirmation page: After you have completed the online DS-260/261, you must print out the confirmation page from the website and bring it with you to your interview. Without the confirmation page, it may not be possible to access your application and process your visa case.

Visa fees: Applicants for petition-based visas (IR1, CR1, etc) who have been receiving correspondence from the National Visa Center have likely already paid their visa fees. Other fees are as follows:

Diversity Visa Fee (non-refundable): $330
Immigrant Visa Fee (for all applicants except for DV applicants): $325

All applicants must pay, regardless of age. Fees can be paid in dollars or in equivalent Naira at the current U.S. Consulate exchange rate. Applicants may not 'mix' currencies (i.e., you may not pay a fee using both Naira and USD). For the current U.S. Consulate exchange rate, please call the Consulate at 460-3400.

An international passport, valid for at least 6 months beyond your interview date.

Medical Exam: Arrange for a medical examination by one of the physicians listed below. Please note that there is a charge for the examination, and that the exam must have been conducted in the last six months. A medical exam is required for all applicants, regardless of age.

A police certificate. Applicants age 16 or older must submit a police certificate for all countries in which they have resided for more than one year after reaching age 16. The police certificate must have been issued less than one year ago. This packet contains instructions for obtaining your police report.

Two color passport photos, showing the applicant's full face, on a white background. The required size is typical for passports: 1½ inches by 1½ inches (5 cm x 5 cm).

All original documents pertaining to your case, including marriage and divorce certificates, adoption decrees, death certificates, birth certificates. Please bring a photocopy of all original documents as well.

Court and Immigration Records: If you have been convicted of a crime or other offense, in the United States or elsewhere, obtain a certified court record covering each offense. If you previously resided in the U.S., you are encouraged to bring evidence of your immigration status during your stay, and records of any previous U.S. visa extensions and deportations that would be relevant for review.

Evidence of Support: All applicants (except Diversity Visa applicants) are required to bring evidence to demonstrate that they and their families are not likely to become public charges (meaning, live in poverty and depend on government financial assistance) while in the United States. This is usually accomplished by a signed I-864 Affidavit of Support form.

In addition to the above, immigrant visa applicants are advised to bring evidence that they are entitled to the visa classification for which they are applying. Applicants for relationship-based visas are encouraged to review the enclosed Guidance for Relationship-Based Visa Applicants and bring ample evidence to demonstrate their relationship to the Consular Officer.

Please note: The Consulate cannot guarantee that any applicant will receive a visa on the day of his interview. Decisions are based on many factors. Even if the Consulate determines you are eligible for a visa, visa issuance can be delayed for a variety of reasons. Applicants are strongly advised against giving up their job, disposing of property, or buying plane tickets until they receive a visa.

If you are granted the visa at the time of your interview, your passport and visa will be ready for pickup approximately five business days following your interview. Please note that due to the high volume of visas we process and several other logistical necessities, we are not able to expedite the printing of visas. We advise you not to make any irrevocable travel plans before you have the visa in your physical possession. An immigrant visa is usually valid for travel for a maximum of six months from the date of issuance.

Note that petitioners are not permitted into the interview room, though we allow one family member to accompany elderly applicants and young children. In no case (including IR3 cases) is the petitioner required to be present or be in-country at the time of the interview.

We hope that this information will prove helpful in your application for an immigrant visa.

Sincerely,

Immigrant Visa Section

FOR THE EXAMINING PHYSICIAN:

EACH FORM (DS-2054) SHOULD BE ENDORSED BY THE PANEL PHYSICIAN AS FOLLOWS:

I certify that the person covered by this report is the bearer of Passport No: _____
Issued by: _____ on _____.

Dear Sir:

You are requested to perform a medical examination of _____ in accordance with provisions of the "Technical Instructions for Medical Examination of Aliens" of the United States Public Health Service, which is in your possession, and to report the results on the attached Form DS-2054.

Please note that in accordance with Section 34.4 (pages 1-3) of the Technical Instructions cited above, neither a chest x-ray examination nor a serologic test for syphilis shall be required if the applicant is under the age of 15. A tuberculin test may be required, however, where there is evidence of contact with a known case of tuberculosis or other reason to suspect infection with tuberculosis. A serologic test may be required where there is reason to suspect infection with syphilis.

X-Ray for Pregnant Women

A postponement of the chest x-ray of a pregnant female is permissible; however, it is the position of the United States Public Health Service that it is possible to perform the examination safely during pregnancy with proper shielding of the abdomen. It should be explained to the applicant that if the x-ray examination were postponed, the issuance of the immigrant visa would also be postponed until such time as the medical examination is completed. U.S. Public Health Service regulations does not authorize a classification based only on a tuberculin skin test.

Procedure for Safeguarding Pregnant Women During X-Ray Testing

The Bureau of Radiological Health, Food and Drug Administration and the Public Health Service have provided the following information:

“Non-abdominal examinations, when conducted with appropriate technique factors, collimation and abdominal shielding, contribute only negligible exposure to the embryo or fetus. (Collimation refers to adjustment by the operator of the size of the x-ray beam so that it is no larger than the film). With specific reference to chest x-rays, we have calculated the estimated radiation dose to the embryo or fetus for each type of 14x17 film (AP, PA and lateral). With adequate collimation, a single PA film delivers 0.09 millirad (mrad) to the embryo or fetus which is essentially negligible. This assumes that the operator adequately collimates the x-ray beam. Further assurances of protection can be achieved by requiring that the abdominal area of the women be shielded with a lead apron.”

Doubtful Cases

Whenever further medical consultation is deemed advisable, the visa applicant should be referred to an appropriate specialist at the applicant's expense. Under generally accepted medical procedures, the specialist should report his findings and opinion to the Panel Physician who remains responsible for the completion of Form DS-2054 and final results of the medical examination. In those comparatively rare instances where no specialist is available for consultations, the Panel Physician may refer specific problems to the Consulate General, which will in turn refer the case to the Public Health Service in the United States.

It is absolutely essential that any practitioner performing any part of this medical examination take proper care to identify the applicant by comparison with his photograph. Special attention should be given to ensure that specimens submitted by the applicant are from the applicant and not a third party.
